

WE ARE MACMILLAN. CANCER SUPPORT

Your Work Could Change Lives

I 'm hosting an art show for Macmillan Cancer Support at Georges House Gallery, Folkestone from Thursday 16th to Wednesday 29th February 2012. Regrettably, I 'm not an artist and have no work of my own to sell. I urgently require the generous donation of a contemporary work, preferably (but not exclusively) on canvas, that will ideally sell at a premium. If sold, the charity takes no less than 50% of the proceeds. If unsold, it comes back to you. In the interim you and your donated work will get fantastic media exposure in addition to targeted leafleting, a dedicated website and much more.
